

Metafour Product Profile for UIU ICCIT Dec 2018

Metafour design, develop and deploy software applications for Courier, Freight, Warehousing and Fulfillment organizations. Metafour has over 35 years of experience in the logistics industry.

As a subsidiary of Metafour UK Limited, it has been in operation in Bangladesh for the last 20 years. Metafour also has a sales office in South Africa.

In Numbers

Items Tracked Annually	Corporate Users Worldwide	Years of Logistics Innovation	Logistics Experts
50,000,000	18,000	38	43

Software and Solutions

	Courier Software Manage every part of the delivery process, from incoming sales, client services and operations, to management and financial reporting for Overnight Courier, Sameday Courier, International Courier and Logistics Networks.
Mailroom Software NetCourier corporate mailroom systems are used to monitor all parcel traffic in any busy organisation. NetCourier can be used to track Inbound and outbound mail, as well as sending between internal departments.

Fulfilment Software

NetCourier fulfilment software is a single point of integration for eCommerce platforms, WMS, carriers and order management provides courier companies a platform which allows them to serve retail customers.

3rd Party Integrations

NetCourier connects to a range of suppliers, with integrations to over 25 shipping partners. NetCourier can save you time and offer your customers a seamless shipping experience.

ISO27001 & Cyber Essentials Certified

Metafour has been awarded the ISO27001 certification. Metafour customers have an assurance that we are operating in a professional manner that highly values security and is compliant with an internationally recognised standard, which has been audited by an accredited third party.

Cyber Essentials aims to help organisations implement basic levels of protection against cyber attacks. This is just one step Metafour has taken in our commitment to taking cyber security seriously and keeping our customers' data safe.

