

COMPANY PROFILE

Powerbits limited is a newly formed IT company in Bangladesh aiming to provide IT based solutions in travel, tourism, hospitality, healthcare, education, administration and banking sectors.

Powerbits has already started developing bespoke travel apps for tourism sector involving travel and accommodation services with online payment facilities. Also work is ongoing at R&D level to develop multifunctional apps for healthcare and hospitality sectors in near future too.

Along with the apps based initial market entry products, Powerbits also aligning itself with software solutions involving experienced programmers for developing comprehensive IT based bespoke product/ service for its clients ranging from individual SMEs to NGO's and government contracts.

The Chairman of the company has profound IT background with educational qualifications from the UK and more than 20 years of experience in IT support business consultancy within Europe through various UK based international projects. Along with IT background, he is also well experienced in business feasibility, project management, risk assessment, financial projection, process development and integration, business diagnosis and forward planning.

The Managing Director of the company is a highly motivated individual with strong focus and business acumen with many successful business establishments. His involvement with Powerbits will enhance the business process for long term sustainability and growth.

Company organogram:

