Our belief is to ensure best and quality products/services rather to impose high price to consumer.

Message from CEO ,w3xplorers Bangladesh

“w3xplorers” provides the best solution & services related to your needs. Delivering value-added solutions with integrity, honesty, and teamwork is our mission and is the foundation upon which our company was built. Today, as we continue to grow in both employee and customer base, we have kept this mission—instilled by our shareholders—close to heart. Commitment to a common goal provides a sense of importance and belonging. Our core values are truly felt throughout the organization. Our shareholders founded w3xplorers Bangladesh and its subsidiaries based on their family-oriented culture, and I am extremely proud to carry on that tradition on their behalf. If you are a customer, let me take this opportunity to thank you. We work hard to earn and retain your business. We hope our service continues to help you reach your goals. Finally, if you are thinking of working or partnering with us, I assure you that with us you will find an organization looking to build long-lasting business relationships.

Warm regards,

W3xplorers Team

W3xplorers people are the main secret of the company's success. When selecting professionals to join the team, Soft Expert respects the diversities in culture and opinions. The company offers satisfying rewards and a wide range of benefits.

W3xplorers Partners

STANDARD PARTNERSHIP CATEGORIES

W3xplorers provides the following Standard partnership categories:

REFERRAL

Referral Partners are typically consulting or technology based companies which understand the benefits our solution can bring to their customers or other companies within their network, thus recommending it to them. When opportunities are identified, Referral Partners contact W3xplorers VAR or Reseller, which will then conduct the next steps in the sales process. Referral Partners earn referral fees for sales that result from any new lead they generate.

VALUE ADDED RESELLER [VAR]

Value Added Resellers are international industry leaders which want to add value to their current products and/or services portfolio, extending their solution with part of the W3xplorers product portfolio. W3xplorers products become part of their solution package.

RESELLER

W3xplorers Resellers resell all or part of the W3xplorers product portfolio. Along with a team or a business unit which primary focus is selling W3xplorers solutions, they are responsible for the whole sales life cycle, and also for providing professional services to support training, implementation, technical support and maintenance of the products.

W3xplorers Partners

DISTRIBUTOR

Distributor Partners represent W3xplorers in a country or region. They resell all or part of the W3xplorers product suite, generally through a network of sales partners. They are responsible for developing, supporting (including marketing campaigns) and monitoring processes. They are also responsible for providing product localization (translation) to their region or country and professional services to support training, implementation, technical support and maintenance of the products, directly or through their sales partners. We have a close working relationship with our Distributors. They often have extensive domain experience and receive ongoing training and technical support, enabling them to deliver high-quality services directly to customers, or through their sales channel.

W3xplorers Partners

STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP CATEGORIES

W3xplorers provides the following Strategic partnership categories:

BPO

W3xplorers's Business Process Outsourcing program is focused on forging relationships with leading companies that have a core competency in this area. BPO partners use W3xplorers solutions to provide their services, thus adding value to their offer and streamlining services to their customers. W3xplorers establishes a close working relationship with BPO partners. They often have extensive domain experience and receive ongoing training and technical support, enabling them to deliver high-quality services to their customers.

OEM

OEM (Original Equipment Manufacturers) Partners integrate software technologies from W3xplorers with their own product offering for commercial resale. These partners may add on, bundle, host or embed our software. W3xplorers solutions integrate partner's offers portfolio and becomes transparent to the end user. OEM partners receive aggressive resell discounts and technical, development, marketing and sales support to ensure that their offers portfolio will provide market leading software solutions.

STRATEGIC ALLIANCE

These partners are characterized as global leaders across technical, marketing, sales, or services capabilities and typically represent a strong brand in their industry, specialty or vertical market. Strategic Alliances are also generally multinational, with significant presence in multiple geographic regions. Membership within this category is by invitation only.

Clients say about us

W3Payroll was able to conquer the process HRM, as required in compliance, through the use of W3xplorers's Solution. Not only did this solution allow us to easily map our processes, but it was essential in allowing us to understand how our business was working, and where the inefficiencies were. This solution has allowed us to reduce costs for both our organization and for our customers, through the continual improvement derived from its use.
